Rasco Organisational Change

Rasco have been doing a further important step to continue its strategic and organizational changes in order to furthermore serve as reliable and innovative business partner for its customers.

Alexander Waldauf has been appointed Vice President Sales & Marketing replacing Carsten Wirth who has resigned from Rasco. Alexander Waldauf has been working at Rasco as Product Line and Project Manager for many years. He is highly experienced in the semiconductor market and especially in the technology and the customer requirements of the handler business. His profound knowledge makes him well suited to successfully lead Rasco's sales and marketing issues worldwide.

Rasco continues to develop new technologies to meet future customer roadmaps and challenges.
